MEN'S DEMONSTRATION TO BE A GREAT EVENT

Three Thousand to Participate in Tonight's Parade

MANY BANDS EXPECTED

Route to Be Over Principal Streets of the Borough--- Washington Will Lead

Arrangements have been completed for the big parade of men and boys over 16 years to take place this evening as one of the principal features of the Sunday School convention now in session. The parade will move promptly at 7:30 o'clock with Capt. J. K. Hein, the chief marshal, and his aides in charge. The route of parade will be along Washington, McKean and Fallowfield avenues. Formation will be along Washington avenue, north of Second street.

Seventeen bands are to take part in the parade. If there is time these bands will be lined up near the railroad station into one big organization, and with August Bosson, of Charleroi, conducting, give a brief concert.

Special cars and trains will convey people from the central part of the county. Considering the intense enthusiasm that reigns everywhere over the county in the present convention, over 3,000 men, the expected number, will be in line.

Adult Bible School classes of Charleroi, will march by church and class in the parade. They will form after the manner of the Children's parade Thursday morning, and like the children's parade will be led by the Charleroi police force. Unlike in the children's parade, the aides will be mounted, and some of those to take part in the parade will be conveyed in carriages or automobiles.

MONESSEN MILL MEN TO PICNIC

Tomorrow the Page Athletic Club of Monessen will hold their annual picnic at Eldora Park. This is in reality an outing for the employees of the Page Woven Wire company, and the Monessen mill will be closed down for that purpose all day Saturday. A program of sports including a ball game has been arranged and a big crowd is expected.

Curb Market Again Tomorrow. Tomorrow is one of the curb market dates, and the indications are that more farmers and gardeners will be on hand with produce to sell than was present at the Tuesday market. It has been demonstrated that dealers can sell their stuff more quickly and easily at the curb market than by huckstering it around. For this reason many more dealers are expected to be at the market early tomorrow morning.

Park Dance Tonight. The regular Friday night dance will be held at Eldora Park tonight. This brings together a good company of congenial young people, and the usual pleasant time is expected.

THE COYLE THEATRE SAFEST HOUSE IN STATE CLEAN, COOL AND COMFORTABLE. 266-11

Overflows Arranged

Four Meetings to be Held Following Men's Parade Tonight

No meetings will be held tonight until after the men's parade. The main meeting will be for men at the convention tent, and an address will be made there by Dr. John F. Carson of New York city, as announced in another column. An overflow meeting will be held at the Christian church, at which Prof Charles Scanlon of Pittsburgh will make an address. Mrs. M. J. Baldwin of Philadelphia, one of the most noted women speakers of the State will make an address at the Methodist Episcopal church for women. An overflow meeting of women will be held at the Christ Lutheran church. Rev. C. L. V. McKee of Washington will be in charge there.

TAFT GAINS GROUND STEADILY AT CHICAGO

Roosevelt Sentiment Not So Apparent as at Opening of Convention--Much Talk of Bolting the Party

Advises from Chicago are to the effect that the Republican situation is clearer today than at any time since the opening of the convention. The Taft forces are in absolute command of the situation, and can nominate the President if they so desire. In view of the threatened split in case Taft is renominated much talk is rife at Taft headquarters of a compromise candidate. In this connection Senator Root of New York and Governor Hadley of Missouri are talked of as compromise candidates for president and vice president.

The Roosevelt people have declared they will not bolt in convention, but in case Taft is nominated Col. Roosevelt stated that he will head a third party if the people want him. In that case no action would likely be taken until after the Democratic convention at Baltimore. Following is a summary of yesterday's proceedings in convention:

Convention convened 12:02 p. m. at the Coliseum, Chicago, and at 12:06 adjourned until 4 p. m. because credentials committee was not ready to report.

Met at 4 p. m. and adjourned at 4:06 p. m. until today at 11 o'clock when credentials committee is expected to report.

Acting under tremendous pressure Col. Roosevelt withdrew his plan for an immediate bolt and had the chosen representatives of the various delegations pass a resolution, the effect of which is to postpone the bolt until after the Taft people have played their hand in the convention. His forces will agree to no candidate, compromise or otherwise, in whose nomination the 78 contested delegates have any part. If the Taft leaders sent the 78 delegates, Roosevelt claims the Roosevelt forces will participate in the convention. If the 78 Taft delegates are seated the Roosevelt forces will remain in the convention refusing to vote or bound in any way by its action and reserving the right to hold a convention of their own at the conclusion of the one now in session.

The day around Taft headquarters was taken up with talk of a third candidate.

Credentials committee resumed its sessions in the morning with the bolting Roosevelt members in their chairs. From the action taken by the committee in the Arizona and Alabama cases, where the Taft delegates were seated it was evident that the committee intended to uphold the action of the national committee.

HANLY UNABLE TO COME TONIGHT

Dr. John F. Carson, Former Moderator of Presbyterian Assembly to Speak

Ex-Gov J. Frank Hanly of Indiana will not come to Charleroi tonight to address the men attending the Washington County Sunday School convention sessions. After making the engagement to come here he wrote that he would be in the south at the time and consequently would be unable to get here. Every possible influence was brought to bear, but he persisted that he could not come.

Efforts were made to get Rev. Billy Sunday but he is finishing up a (Continued on second page.)

What Co-Operation Is.

Co-operation is not merely a question of a few cents less per bushel of potatoes or per pound of tea; it is at once a system of business, a spirit of brotherhood, an economical method of distribution and a principle of equity.

CONFERENCE HELD TODAY

Foreign, Home Department and Elementary Questions Are Discussed

Conference formed an interesting part of the Friday morning program of the Washington County Sunday School convention sessions. A foreign work conference was held at the convention tent, an elementary conference at Christ Lutheran church and a Home Department conference at the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. C. L. V. McKee, of Washington, conducted the foreign work conference. Speaks well acquainted with the work among foreigners in this county were on the program: Rev. W. J. Hogue, of Washington, spoke of "The Churches' View of the Foreigner"; Rev. Arthur Smith of Washington, of "Work for the Italians," and Rev. J. E. Charles, pastor of the French Presbyterian church of Charleroi, who is the district superintendent of foreign work, made an address.

SWIMMING POOL IS POPULAR

Playgrounds Feature Much Patronized by Youngsters

JOLLIFFE THE DIRECTOR

Dale Joliffe, director of the Charleroi playgrounds has a great time in taking the boys down to the swimming pool in the Turn Verein building, which the management of that society very generously placed at the disposal of the children of the playgrounds during the season. Dale divides the boys up in squads of 25 which he takes to the pool three days of the week—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The lads are chosen in alphabetical order and the swimming dates are eagerly awaited. While there was some disposition to "soldier" on the police work of cleaning the grounds every day, there is no shirking on the swimming days, when the grounds are cleaned in short order.

Under direction of Miss Nelle Rylands, directress of the girls, the latter are taken to the pools in squads the same as the boys three days a week—Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The girls are as eager for the splash as the boys, and they have rare sport. Efforts are made to teach both the small boys and girls to swim, and to make the most of their opportunity. The swimming pool is perhaps the most popular diversion of the entire playgrounds.

Appointed Tax Collector.

Upon petition the court has appointed John O. Watson tax collector of North Charleroi caused by the removal of the former incumbent. The petitioners were Davis Woodward, John H. Myers, Samuel Gaskill, R. A. Metz, Tom P. Sloan, John Wolff, and H. A. Williams.

All Methodist men are requested to report at the church, corner Sixth and Lincoln at 6:30 p. m. Friday evening to form for the Parade. 273-11

LEST WE FORGET.

Tomorrow, Saturday, is another curb market day, and let us not forget the date their attention is again called to the institution which the efforts of the Charleroi Business Men's Association committee and others are trying to permanently install in our town. As the success of the project depends upon its patronage, it is necessary that special effort be made in the way of encouragement at the struggling period. For this reason the people of the town are again urged to be on hand with their market baskets early and make their purchases from those who bring produce to town to sell.

As stated several times previously, the curb market is designed to bring the producer and consumer together for the mutual benefit of each. By this method the producer can usually get more for his products and the consumer can usually buy for less when purchasing direct from the consumer. A good start has been made in the direction of the curb market, and if all will co-operate at this particular time, the institution will become permanent and work for the benefit of the entire community.

MAKING PROGRESS.

By the prompt passage of two grade ordinances by council this week a substantial improvement is assured for Charleroi this season. These ordinances are designed to assist the State Highway Department which is advertising for bids to build a section of the improved highway through Charleroi, in which the borough must co-operate. That the borough officials are ready to do their part is evidenced by this action.

The highway improvement through Charleroi is another instance of the efforts of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, who actively pressed the needs of highway improvement of this community to the State department. The routes along the river are among the most important, traversing as they do the greatest industrial section of the commonwealth. For this reason the department could not well ignore Charleroi's claims. The Business Men's Association is making advancement in looking after the interests of the community, and a number of small accomplishments of which the road improvement is one, marks the progress of the efforts.

FICKED UP IN PASSING

Charleroi's well kept streets, its busy, prosperous appearance, its atmosphere of stability, coupled with its cordiality and friendliness, has been a revelation to many people in attendance at the Sunday school convention here this week. Many of the delegates from the interior of the county have never before visited the "Magic City," and these are most agreeably surprised at their reception here, as well as the appearance of the town.

"I had no idea Charleroi was such a good looking town, nor so large as it is, said a delegate from one of the interior townships. "I had a dread considerable about the town, but somehow or other I got the impression that Charleroi was of the mushroom order, with more or less roughness in connection. Why, Charleroi looks to me a whole lot better than Washington, and I was never in a more orderly place. The people here, every one I meet, are cordial and friendly, and all appear prosperous and contented. We've been treated tiptop, and I for one will always remember my visit with pleasure, and intend to come back here as often as I can."

Story tellers are numerous at the Washington County Sunday School Association convention and many a merry jest has made the hundreds laugh who have been crowding the convention tent at the corner of Fallowfield avenue. W. D. Stem, the State Organized Adult Bible School Superintendent who is one of the principal convention speakers told a number of jokes in his address yesterday afternoon. One of them has as the characters a Salvation Army lass of Chicago, and a hardened sinner whom she tried to convert to the straight and narrow path.

The lass approached the man and asked him if he would not like to lead a different life. He didn't seem very much touched, but started interrogating her. By degrees he led up to the question:

"How long have you been following this life, which leads to salvation?"

"Seven years," replied the girl.

"Seven years?" he exclaimed.

"Yes, seven years."

"And you have got no farther than Chicago?" he asked apparently surprised.

The sinner turned away and was not heard of again.

BANDS WILL PLAY BEFORE BIG PARADE

Preceding the men's parade which will move promptly tonight at 7:30 o'clock, the seventeen or so bands which will be here will be formed into one large organization at the railroad station by August Bosson, who is chairman of the Charleroi music committee for the county Sunday School convention. Mr. Bosson makes a request that all the bands report at 6:45 promptly. Two or more selections will be played by the big organization. From the place the bands will be taken to the places on Washington avenue to which they will be assigned in the parade.

The parade will be led by the Charleroi police force, the chief marshal and his staff, the burgess and members of council and the speakers, then the Washington district and Monongahela, and then in numerical order the marchers from the different districts. Charleroi district will march at the end of the parade.

SUNRISE PRAYER MEETING TODAY

The Sunrise meeting was the first meeting held this morning. It started at 6 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church with about 20 persons present, mostly delegates. Before the end of the meeting it is estimated there were 110 present. The meeting was conducted by Rev. W. S. Uysinger of Wheeling, who conducted a circle prayer.

BANQUET HELD BY ELEMENTARY

Interesting Program is Carried Out at Christ Lutheran Church

The colors green and white predominated at noon today at Christ Lutheran church, where the elementary banquet was held. This banquet is easily a feature of the present convention. An excellent menu was served, consisting of chicken, mashed potatoes, peas, salad, jelly, relish, ice cream, cake and coffee. A program, with Miss Frances Cooper presiding was carried out practically as announced. There were about 250 present. The announced program was:

Carson of New York city former moderator of the Presbyterian Assembly and one of the best known men in church circles in the United States was secured. President Murray C. Reiter of the county association assures the local people that they will lose nothing of importance in the way of speakers, Dr. Carson being on a par with ex-Governor Hanly.

How Co-operation Works.

In studying Co-operation and in our attempt to apply it we should understand that it does not simply mean a stock company which is organized for the purpose of paying stockholders a handsome profit. The stockholders are entitled to a reasonable interest on the money invested, but the remaining profit should be divided among the people who furnish patronage.

DELEGATES GIVEN HEARTY WELCOME

Two Addresses Made Thursday Afternoon by Magic City Folks

The addresses of welcome and the response formed a good part of the program at the Sunday School convention session held in the convention tent Thursday afternoon. W. S. James, president of the Charleroi district, welcomed the visiting hosts on behalf of "The Magic City," and Rev. J. E. Charles, pastor of the French Presbyterian church, on behalf of the churches of Charleroi.

Rev. Murray C. Reiter, president of the county association presided at the meeting. He introduced Mr. James as the one most responsible for the success of the present convention, and the one who though busy with his duties as manufacturing superintendent of the Macbeth-Evans glass plant here, yet willingly and untiringly labored in the work of preparation for the convention. Rev. Reiter explained that Burgess George W. Risbeck, who was to have made the address of welcome was unable to attend because of sickness in his family.

Mr. James heartily welcomed the delegates and visitors in a short speech. He spoke of the great work being done by the Sunday School, which he said was the most up-to-date institution of the church. He assured the delegates that everything possible had been done by Charleroi people in preparation for the convention, and that the gates of the borough were wide open.

Rev. J. E. Charles spoke most interesting in his welcoming address. He said that the aim of the church people here and the aim of Charleroi people generally was to have the delegates and visitors feel at home. He said that the churches were glad because of a spirit of brotherly love to entertain the hosts that were now our guests. Rev. Charles referred to the convention as the largest ever held in Washington county.

Rev. W. P. Aiken, pastor of the Chartiers United Presbyterian church made the response to the address of welcome. Rev. Aiken thought the idea of the tent as a place in which to hold the convention a capital one. He believed, he said, in thorough training of teachers. He said that the delegates and visitors were just as glad to be in Charleroi as Charleroi was glad to have them here, and that they wanted to celebrate and enjoy the cordial hospitality of the people of the "Magic City."

Rev. W. S. Dysinger, of Wheeling, the devotional leader, conducted the devotional exercises upon the opening of the afternoon sessions, and spoke on "The Lamb of God." Rev. L. O. Brown, who pleased with an address Thursday morning gave another of his interesting chalk talks.

Rev. J. B. Cavitt, of McDonald, spoke of "The Sabbath School is the Hope of the Church." He said that the hope of the world was the church of Jesus Christ, and the Sunday school was the hope of the church, because it trained the young people in leadership. Rev. Cavitt feared that the value of the Sunday school was not realized. He deplored the tendency of older persons to draw away from the Sunday School, and consequently the church. He pleaded with those in Sunday School work to set good examples for the boys and girls.

W. D. Stem, Organized Bible Class superintendent referred to in an address to Washington county as one of the best counties in the State to live in, and mentioned it as one of the leaders in Sunday School work. Mr. Stem put up a plea for everybody to be in the Sunday School, everybody in the Sunday School to be a Christian.

ian, and every Christian a trained worker.

Rev. W. B. Smiley, D. D., of McKeesport, spoke in one of the principal addresses of the afternoon on the subject, "Why Train Our Teachers?" He gave several reasons why, among them being the need of competent teachers, because of the necessity of a teacher's best efforts to get the best results which are attainable only through trained work, that the teachers may avoid repetitions of failures, that they may answer the challenge of the age in furnishing the proper quality of instruction, to improve the condition in the church, and to follow the example of the Master himself. In closing Rev. Smiley spoke a word of caution. He told his hearers that teacher's training diploma was not the whole thing, but that experience meant more than a piece of parchment possibly could.

The closing event of the afternoon at the convention tent was a teacher's training open parliament, where questions were asked. Rev. Smiley was in charge of this feature.

REV. CARTWRIGHT GIVES LECTURE

Feature of Thursday Night's Program Address by Pittsburg Pastor

Every available seat was taken and many were standing at the Sunday School convention tent Thursday night for the first night's session of the Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Washington County Sabbath School Association. Two addresses were made, one by W. D. Stem, the State Organized Adult Class Superintendent and Rev. C. L. E. Cartwright, D. D., of Pittsburgh. A song service was conducted by Rev. L. O. Brown of Franklin, a missionary of an American Bible society, and a chorus choir under direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel sang "Praise Ye The Father," Ground, as a special selection. Rev. W. S. Dysinger at the devotional service spoke on the topic, "There are Few Saved."

Mr. Stem's address was on the subject: "The Men of Christ." His talk had to do entirely with methods of winning men to the church. He spoke of the efficiency of the Sunday School in that line and of the methods adopted by a number of organizations in the west. Mr. Stem said the way to get a man interested in church work was to get him interested in some department, notably the men's class of a Sunday School. Getting him once interested in this, there was much opportunity for further influencing him. He said that our business is to go after the worst men first.

Following Rev. Stem's address an offering was taken for State work. By request Mr. Stem explained the use to which the money was put by the State, part of it being for the Washington county labor, part to employ State Sunday School workers, and part to temperance—in fact everything in which the Sunday School is taking an interest.

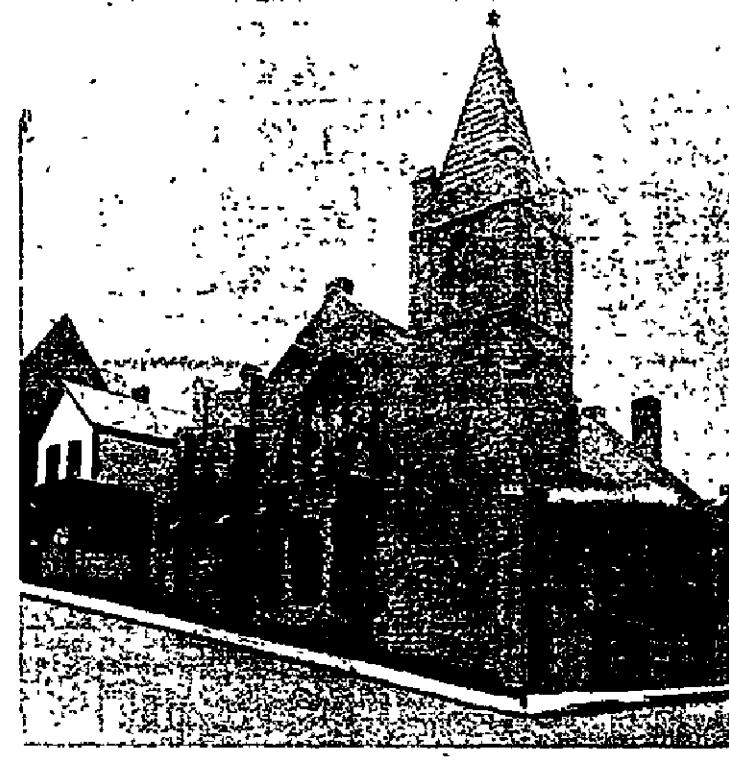

Rev. C. L. E. Cartwright was on the program alone of the chief speakers of the whole convention. His subject was: "That Boy and His Sister." The lecture was a treatise of the best methods of getting the good out of the boy and his sister. Rev. Cartwright referred to them as a mighty army that was going to conquer the world. He mentioned the names of a number of boys and girls who had made good in various lines.

He asked what is to be the nature of rule of these boys and girls. They are natural, which is different from most of us. The boy is here with a divine right. We don't desire a negative traveling around in society—a negative is first cousin to a pessimist.

A negative comes from the extravagant use of "No's" and "Don'ts." The

MRS MARY L. STEWART

County Field Secretary, whose efforts have been largely responsible for the success of this and previous county conventions.

At the 4 o'clock conference of the Adult Bible Classes at the Washington avenue Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon W. F. Alten presided. He stated that at the end of the quarter in March, a statement was issued from headquarters requiring an increase of 10 per cent of Adult Bible Classes to entitle a county to be placed on the honor roll. About 50 counties have already reported the required increase. It has been found that Washington county lacks 13 classes to place her on the honor roll, and Mr. Alten asked to have that number pledged, which must be reported at headquarters by June 25. After some solicitation and talk enough were pledged to give Washington the desired increase and entitle the county to a place on the honor roll.

W. D. Stem, superintendent of the Adult Department of the State Association, then conducted a round table conference of the workers present, and a number of questions concerning Adult Bible Class work were presented and briefly discussed. Mr. Stem, who is engaged in field work in this department, was able in the light of experience to give much valuable information and advice, and the conference proved to a most profitable one for the workers who took part in it.

NEAT SUM RAISED FOR PLAYGROUNDS

Benefit Baseball Game Brings Out Good Sized Crowd Thursday Night

Two baseball teams that from their appearance wouldn't impress a stranger as being the leading teams of the National or even the United States league, fought to a finish over at the ball ground Thursday evening in a benefit game for the Charleroi playgrounds. Success attended the affair in every particular—the playgrounds got considerable coin of the realm and the players a plentiful supply of sore muscles. The score who beat was a minor consideration, of course. Still it might be wise to add that Bob Vetter's frisky ones, known as the All Star Has Beens scored the least number of runs, and consequently won the game. They only got 15, which was doing pretty well at that, considering the game didn't go the entire way. John B. Schafer's happy hunters herded together 19 runs.

The worst player in the whole bunch was Councilman Rickey. He got six hits and only made one error. The next worst player was Geo. Barnett who got five hits and one error. The best player in the crowd was Councilman Gaut who didn't get anything except credits for two hits. Gaut grew tired playing with Schafer and resigned to play with Vetter, with whom he made a big hit. However, he decided he would be a presidential candidate, though plainly a favorite at the baseball convention. Score:

MEN'S DEMONSTRATION TO BE A GREAT EVENT

Three Thousand to Participate in Tonight's Parade

MANY BANDS EXPECTED

Route to Be Over Principal Streets of the Borough-- Washington Will Lead

Arrangements have been completed for the big parade of men and boys over 16 years to take place this evening as one of the principal features of the Sunday School convention now in session. The parade will move promptly at 7:30 o'clock with Capt. J. K. Hein, the chief marshal, and his aides in charge. The route of parade will be along Washington, McKean and Fallowfield avenues. Formation will be along Washington avenue, north of Second street.

Seventeen bands are to take part in the parade. If there is time these bands will be lined up near the railroad station into one big organization, and with August Bosson, of Charleroi, conducting, give a brief concert.

Special cars and trains will convey people from the central part of the county. Considering the intense enthusiasm that reigns everywhere over the county in the present convention, over 3,000 men, the exact number, will be in line.

Adult Bible School classes of Charleroi, will march by church and class in the parade. They will form after the manner of the Children's parade Thursday morning, and like the children's parade will be led by the Charleroi police force. Unlike in the children's parade, the aides will be mounted, and some of those to take part in the parade will be conveyed in carriages or automobiles.

MONESSEN MILL MEN TO PICNIC

Tomorrow the Page Athletic Club of Monessen will hold their annual picnic at Eldore Park. This is in reality an outing for the employees of the Page Woven Wire company, and the Monessen mill will be closed down for that purpose all day Saturday. A program of sports including a ball game has been arranged and a big crowd is expected.

Curb Market Again Tomorrow. Tomorrow is one of the curb market dates, and the indications are that more farmers and gardeners will be on hand with produce to sell than was present at the Tuesday market. It has been demonstrated that dealers can sell their stuff more quickly and easily at the curb market than by huckstering it around. For this reason many more dealers are expected to be at the market early tomorrow morning.

Park Dance Tonight. The regular Friday night dance will be held at Eldore Park tonight. This brings together a good company of congenial young people, and the usual pleasant time is expected.

THE COYLE THEATRE SAFEST HOUSE IN STATE CLEAN, COOL AND COMFORTABLE. 266-14

Overflows Arranged

Four Meetings to be Held Following Men's Parade Tonight

until after the men's parade. The main meeting will be for men at the convention tent, and an address will be made there by D. John F. Carson of New York city, as announced in another column. An overflow meeting will be held at the Christian church, at which P. C. Carson, of Sean of Pittsburg will make an address. M. J. Baldwin of Philadelphia, one of the most noted women speakers of the State will make an address at the Methodist Episcopal church for women. An overflow meeting of women will be held at the Christ Lutheran church. Rev. C. L. V. McKee of Washington will be in charge there.

TAFT GAINS GROUND STEADILY AT CHICAGO

Roosevelt Sentiment Not So Apparent as at Opening of Convention--Much Talk of Bolting the Party

Advises from Chicago are to the effect that the Republican situation is clearer today than at any time since the opening of the convention. The last forces are in absolute command of the situation, and can renominate the President if they so desire. In view of the threatened split in case Taft is renominated much acting under tremendous pressure Col. Roosevelt withdrew his plan for an immediate bolt and had the chosen representatives of the various delegations pass a resolution, the effect of which is to postpone the bolt until after the Taft people have played their hand in the convention. His forces are otherwise, in whose nomination Senator Root of New York, the 73 contested delegates have any part. If the Taft leaders seat the talked of as compromise candidates, 73 delegates, Roosevelt claims the Roosevelt forces will participate in the convention if the 73 Taft delegates will not bolt in convention, gavels are seated the Roosevelt forces but in case Taft does not bolt, Roosevelt stated that he will head a to vote or stand in any way by his third party if the people want him. In that case no action would likely be taken until after the Democratic convention at Baltimore. Following a summary of yesterday's proceedings was taken up with talk of a third convention.

Convention convened 12:02 p. m. at the Coliseum, Chicago, and at 12:06 adjourned until 4 p. m. because credentials committee was not ready to report.

Met at 4 p. m. and adjourned at 4:00 p. m. until today at 11 o'clock. When the credentials committee is expected to report.

CONFERENCE HELD TODAY

Foreign, Home Department and Elementary Questions Are Discussed

Conference formed an interesting part of the Friday morning program of the Washington County Sunday School convention sessions. A foreign work conference was held at the convention tent, an elementary conference at Christ Lutheran church and a Home Department conference at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. C. L. V. McKee of Washington, conducted the foreign work conference. Speakers well acquainted with the work among foreigners in this county were on the program.

Rev. W. J. Hogue, of Washington, spoke of "The Churches' View of the Foreigner"; Rev. Arthur Smith of Washington, of "Work for the Italians," and Rev. J. E. Charles, pastor of the French Presbyterian church of Charleroi, who is the district superintendent of foreign work, made an address.

LEST WE FORGET.

Tomorrow, Saturday, is another curb market day, and lest our good people forget the date their attention is again called to the institution which the efforts of the Charleroi Business Men's Association committee and others are trying to permanently install in our town. As the success of the project depends upon its patronage, it is necessary that special effort be made in the way of encouraging it at the struggling period. For this reason the people of the town are again urged to be on hand with their market baskets early and make their purchases from those who bring produce to town to sell.

As stated several times previously, the curb market is designed to bring the producer and consumer together for the mutual benefit of each. By this method the producer can usually get more for his products and the consumer can usually buy for less when purchasing direct from the consumer. A good start has been made in the direction of the curb market, and if all will co-operate at this particular time, the institution will become permanent and work for the benefit of the entire community.

MAKING PROGRESS.

By the prompt passage of two grade ordinances by council this week a substantial improvement is assured for Charleroi this season. These ordinances are designed to assist the State Highway Department which is advertising for bids to build a section of the improved highway through Charleroi, in which the borough must co-operate. That the borough officials are ready to do their part is evidenced by this action.

The highway improvement through Charleroi is another instance of the efforts of the Charleroi Business Men's Association, who actively pressed the needs of highway improvement of this community to the State department. The routes along the river are among the most important, traversing as they do the greatest industrial section of the commonwealth. For this reason the department could not well ignore Charleroi's claims. The Business Men's Association is making advancement in looking after the interests of the community, and a number of small accomplishments of which the road improvement is one, marks the progress of the efforts.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Charleroi's well kept streets, its busy, prosperous appearance, its atmosphere of stability, coupled with its cordial and friendliness, has been a revelation to many people in attendance at the Sunday school convention here this week. Many of the delegates from the interior of the county have never before visited the "Magic City," and these are most agreeably surprised at their reception here, as well as the appearance of the town.

"I had no idea Charleroi was such a good looking town, nor so large as it is," said a delegate from one of the interior townships. "I had dread considerable about the town, but somehow or other I got the impression that Charleroi was of the mushroom order, with more or less roughness in connection. Why, Charleroi looks to me a whole lot better than Washington, and I was never in a more orderly place. The people here, every one I meet, are cordial and friendly, and all appear prosperous and contented. We've been treated tiptop, and I for one will always remember my visit with pleasure, and intend to come back here as often as I can."

Washington County Sunday School Association convention and many a merry jest has made the hundreds laugh who have been crowding the convention tent at the corner of Fallowfield Avenue. W. D. Stern, the State Organized Adult Bible School Superintendent who is one of the principal convention speakers told a number of jokes in his address yesterday afternoon. One of them has as the characters a Salvation Army lass of Chicago, and a hardened sinner whom she tried to convert to the straight and narrow path.

The lass approached the man and asked him if he would not like to lead a different life. He didn't seem very much touched, but started interrogating her. By degrees he led up to the question:

"How long have you been following this life, which leads to salvation?"

"Seven years," replied the girl.

"Seven years?" he exclaimed.

"Yes, seven years."

"And you have got no farther than Chicago?" he asked apparently surprised.

The sinner turned away and was not heard of again.

From the place the bands will be taken to the places on Washington avenue to which they will be assigned in the parade.

Carson of New York city former moderator of the Presbyterian Assembly and one of the best known men in church circles in the United States was secured. President Murray C. Renshaw of the county association assures the local people that they will lose nothing of importance in the way of speakers, Dr. Carson being on a par with ex-Governor Hanly.

How Co-operation Works. In studying Co-operation and in our attempt to apply it we should understand that it does not simply mean a stock company which is organized for the purpose of paying stockholders handsome profit. The stockholders are entitled to a reasonable interest on the money invested, but the remaining profit should be divided among the people who furnish patronage.

Two Addresses Made Thursday Afternoon by Magic City Folks

The addresses of welcome and the response formed a good part of the program at the Sunday School convention session held in the convention tent Thursday afternoon. W. S. James, president of the Charleroi district, welcomed the visiting hosts on behalf of "The Magic City," and Rev. J. E. Charles, pastor of the French Presbyterian church, on behalf of the churches of Charleroi.

Rev. Murray C. Rotier, president of the county association presided at the meeting. He introduced Mr. James as the one most responsible for the success of the present convention, and the one who should be given the duties as manufacturing superintendent of the Macbeth-Evans glass plant here, yet willingly and untiringly labored in the work of preparation for the convention. Rev. Reiter explained that Burgess George W. Risbeck, who was to have made the address of welcome was unable to attend because of sickness in his family.

Mr. James heartily welcomed the delegates and visitors in a short speech. He spoke of the great work being done by the Sunday School, which he said was the most up-to-date institution of the church. He assured the delegates that everything possible had been done by Charleroi people in preparation for the convention, and that the gates of the borough were wide open.

Rev. J. E. Charles spoke most interesting in his welcoming address. He said that the aim of the church people here and the aim of Charleroi people generally was to have the delegates and visitors feel at home. He said that the churches were glad because of a spirit of brotherly love to entertain the hosts that were now our guests. Rev. Charles referred to the convention as the largest ever held in Washington county.

Rev. W. P. Aiken, pastor of the Chartiers United Presbyterian church made the response to the address of welcome. Rev. Aiken thought the idea of the tent as a place in which to hold the convention a capital one. He believed, he said, in thorough training of teachers. He said that the delegates and visitors were just as glad to be in Charleroi as Charleroi was glad to have them here, and that they wanted to celebrate and enjoy the cordial hospitality of the people of the "Magic City."

Rev. W. S. Dysinger, of Wheeling, the devotional leader, conducted the devotional exercises upon the opening of the afternoon sessions, and spoke on "The Lamb of God." Rev. L. O. Brown, who pleased with an address Thursday morning gave another of his interesting chalk talks.

Rev. J. B. Cavitt, of McDonald, spoke of "The Sabbath School the Hope of the Church." He said that the hope of the world was the church of Jesus Christ, and the Sunday school was the hope of the church, because it trained the young people in leadership. Rev. Cavitt feared that the value of the Sunday school was not realized. He deplored the tendency of older persons to draw away from the Sunday School, and consequently the church. He pleaded with those in Sunday School work to set good examples for the boys and girls.

W. D. Stem, Organized Bible Class superintendent referred to in an address to Washington county as one of the best counties in the State to live in, and mentioned it as one of the leaders in Sunday School work. Mr. Stem put up a plea for everybody to be in the Sunday School, everybody in the Sunday School to be a Christian.

and every Christian a trained worker.

Rev. W. B. Smiley, D. D., of McKeever, spoke in one of the principal addresses of the afternoon on the subject, "Why Train Our Teachers?" He gave several reasons why, among them being the need of competent teachers, because of the necessity of a teacher's best efforts to get the best results which are attainable only through trained work, that the teachers may avoid repetitions of failures, that they may answer the challenge of the age in furnishing the proper quality of instruction, to improve the condition in the church, and to follow the example of the Master himself. In closing Rev. Smiley spoke a word of caution. He told his hearers that teacher's training diploma was not the whole thing, but that experience meant more than a piece of parchment possibly could.

The closing event of the afternoon at the convention tent was a teacher's training open parliament, where questions were asked. Rev. Smiley was in charge of this feature.

REV. CARTWRIGHT GIVES LECTURE

Feature of Thursday Night's Program Address by Pittsburg Pastor

Every available seat was taken and many were standing at the Sunday School convention tent Thursday night for the first night's session of the Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Washington County Sabbath School Association. Two addresses were made, one by W. D. Stem, the State Organized Adult Class Superintendent and Rev. C. L. E. Cartwright, D. D., of Pittsburg. A song service was conducted by Rev. L. O. Brown of Franklin, a missionary of an American Bible society, and a chorus choir under direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel sang "Praise Ye The Father," Gounod, as a special selection. Rev. W. S. Dysinger at the devotional service spoke on the topic, "There are Few Saved."

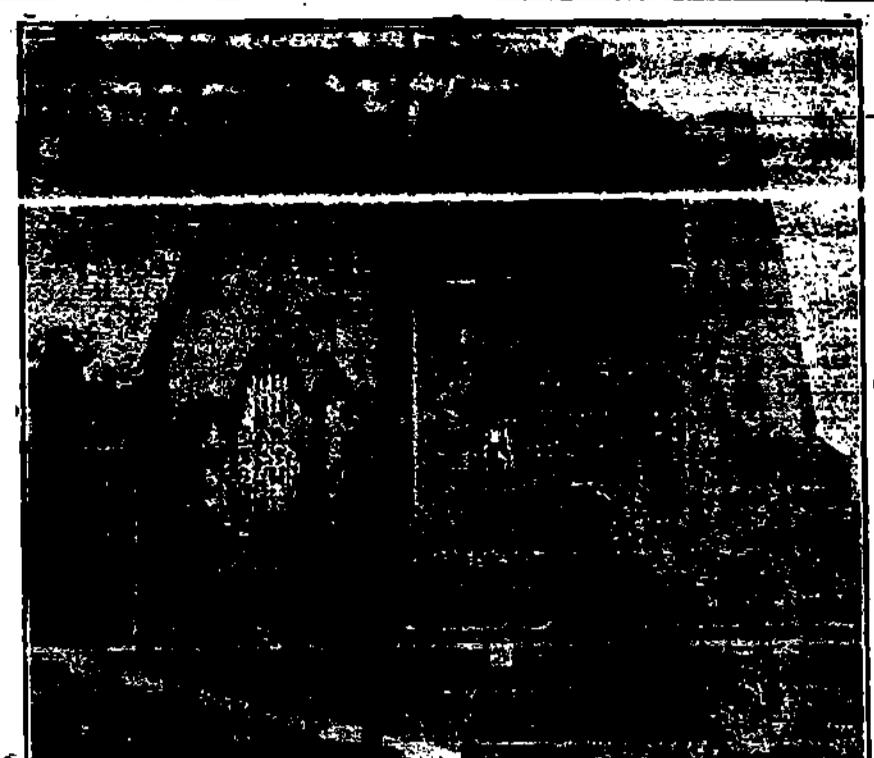

Mr. Stem's address was on the subject: "The Men of Christ." His talk had to do entirely with methods of winning men to the church. He spoke of the efficiency of the Sunday School in that line and of the methods adopted by a number of organizations in the west. Mr. Stem said the way to get a man interested in church work was to get him interested in some department, notably the men's class of a Sunday School. Getting him once interested in this there was much opportunity for further influencing him. He said that our business is to go after the worst men first.

Following Rev. Stem's address an offering was taken for State work. By request Mr. Stem explained the use to which the money was put by the State, part of it being for the Washington county labor, part to employ State Sunday School workers, and part to temperance—in fact everything in which the Sunday School is taking an interest.

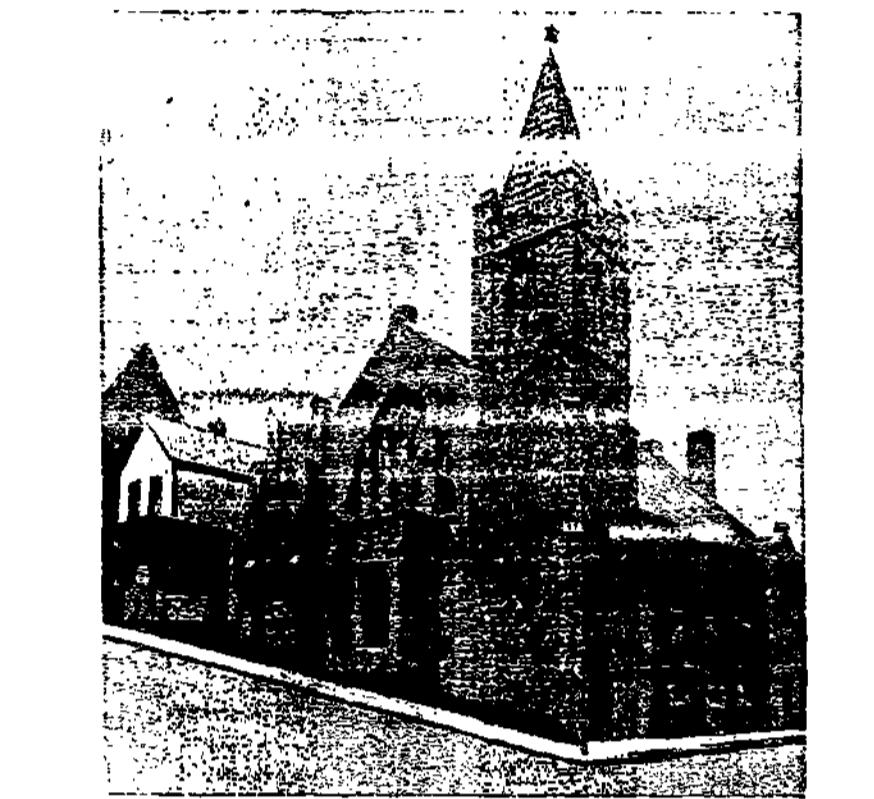

Rev. C. L. E. Cartwright was on the program as one of the chief speakers of the whole convention. His subject was: "That Boy and His Sister." The lecture was a treatise of the best methods of getting the good out of the boy and his sister. Rev. Cartwright referred to them as a mighty army that was going to conquer the world. He mentioned the names of a number of boys and girls who had made good in various lines.

He asked what is to be the nature of rule of these boys and girls. They are natural, which is different from most of us. The boy is here with a divine right. We don't desire a negative traveling around in society—a negative is first cousin to a pessimist.

A negative comes from the extravagant use of "No's" and "Don'ts." The

NEAT SUM RAISED FOR PLAYGROUNDS

Benefit Baseball Game Brings Out Good Sized Crowd Thursday Night

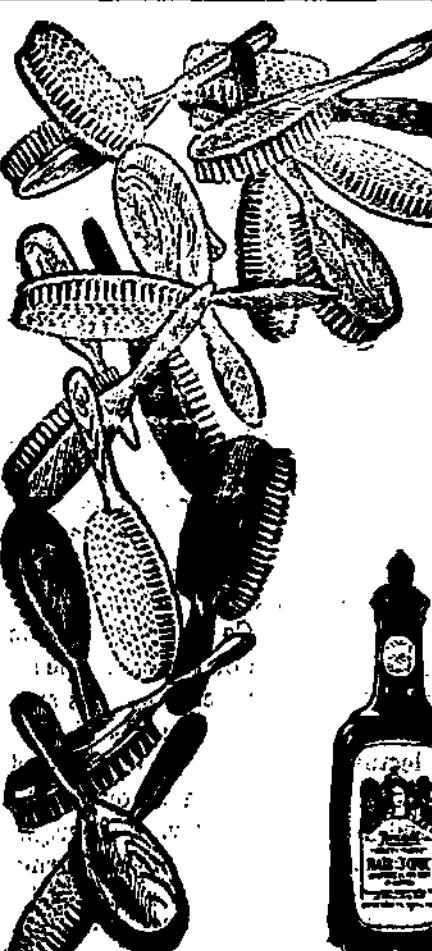

Two baseball teams that from their appearance wouldn't impress a stranger as being the leading teams of the National or even the United States league, fought to a finish over at the ball ground Thursday evening in a benefit game for the Charleroi playgrounds. Success attended the affair in every particular—the playgrounds got considerable coin of the realm and the players a plentiful supply of sore muscles. The score who beat was a minor consideration, of course. Still it might be wise to add that Bob Vetter's frisky ones, known as the All Star Has Beens scored the least number of runs, and consequently won the game. They only got 15, which was doing pretty well at that, considering the game didn't go the entire way. John B. Schafer's happy hunters herded together 19 runs.

The worst player in the whole bunch was Councilman Rickey. He got six hits and only made one error. The next worst player was Geo. Barnett who got five hits and one error. The best player in the crowd was Councilman Gaut who didn't get anything except credits for two hits.

Gaut grew tired playing with Schafer and resigned to play with Vetter, with whom he made a big hit. However, he decided he would be a presidential candidate, though plainly a favorite at the baseball convention. Score: at the baseball convention. Score:
